

AP GERMAN – LANGUAGE AND CULTURE

Description

Thorough review of and steady expansion of grammar, vocabulary, and cultural competency. Reading and listening to authentic German texts covering the six major topics: contemporary life, families and communities, personal and public identities, beauty and aesthetics, global challenges, and science and technology.

Extensive practice of all parts of the AP Exam:

- Written and print interpretive communication
- Audio, visual and audiovisual interpretive communication
- Written interpersonal communication
- Spoken interpersonal communication
- Written presentational communication
- Spoken presentational communication

Special requirements

Prerequisite: German III

Must be able to read and write independently.

Must be competent to speak German freely and to understand it quickly.

Must have excellent general organizational and memorization skills.

Must be able to perform under very demanding circumstances.

Student costs/Materials to be supplied by students

A high quality college dictionary with 120,000 entries if a cellphone with Internet access is not available.
Access to a computer and the Internet

Other information

This course is taught in German.

Students have the opportunity to excel in the following competitions and national and international exams:

NC German Day for High School Students

NC German Immersion Weekend for advanced high school students

National German Exam

Deutsches Sprachdiplom I (International German Diploma, recognized worldwide by colleges and businesses)

Students may receive college credit for this course by taking the Advanced Placement Examination and earning a score acceptable to their college. This acceptable score varies from school to school and department to department.