

Directions for Volunteer Application Process

You must have internet access to apply to be a volunteer with a Winston-Salem Forsyth County School. If you do not have access to a computer, please visit your local public library or contact our Parent Engagement Coordinator at 703-4100.

Any person who has never obtained volunteer clearance in the past must submit an entirely new application. Returning volunteers must reactivate their status each year to continue volunteer services. These directions are for volunteers who are seeking clearance for the first time. To reactivate just login in and resubmit your application at the beginning of August each year.

Step 1:

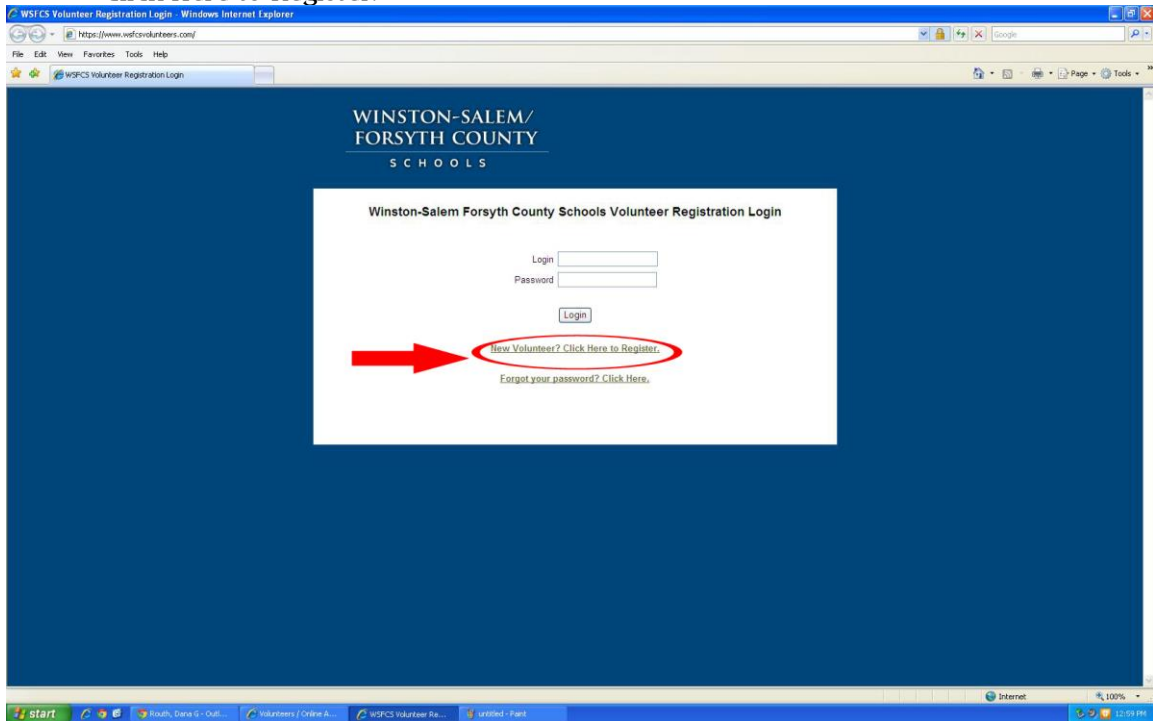

Go to the Winston-Salem Forsyth County Schools Volunteers Login page located at: www.wsfcsvolunteers.com

Step 2:

Click Here to Register.

Step 3:

Fill in the application with all required information (indicated by a red asterisk) and check boxes for appropriate activities you wish to volunteer your services for:

- Coaches Who Care select Reading/Lunch Buddy as indicated in the red circle in above image.
- Please make note of your username and password as you will need them to reactivate each year.
