

Students and Parents,

Congratulations to the following students who have accepted nominations for apply for the following scholarships!

UNC Chapel Hill Morehead Cain Scholarship

- o Gabriela Giulumian
- o Sirena Lovato
- o Joah Macosko
- o Mitchell Rice
- o Sarvesh Venkittu

NC State Park Scholarship

- o Carter Greenwood
- o Mitchell Rice

Davidson Bryan Scholarship

- o Ainsley Edwards
- o Jack Mullane
- o Raymond Xiao

Please note that for the Morehead and Park, other qualified students can self-nominate, without having Reagan's nomination! To read the requirements and apply, search for the scholarship information online. The Morehead application is due Oct. 15, and the Park is due Nov. 1.

OTHER NEWS:

HBCU (Historically Black Colleges and Universities) will be hosting info sessions:

Every Monday and Wednesday evening in October from 6pm-9pm EDT, a Historically Black College/University will be registered in a time slot to give a presentation about their school. Students will have a chance to ask questions and receive additional information about each institution.

Registration is free of charge. The form to register can be found at www.pridgeoneventmanagement.com/qchbcu. When students register, they will receive a schedule of when each school will be live in our Zoom Room. Schools are still being added but the schools who are currently confirmed can be found on our website, as well.

Students from immigrant families:

A UNCG professor has put together an excellent resources to address questions about such things as financial aid for undocumented students, college for DACA students, etc.... You can find it at this link: SoMuchPotential.org