

Merit Scholarships Info Session

Join us for an informational evening with representatives from several prestigious North Carolina scholarship programs. During this session, program representatives will provide an overview of each scholarship and answer questions.

Wednesday, October 4, 2023
6:00-7:30 p.m.

Mt. Tabor High School
Auditorium
342 Petree Road
Winston-Salem, NC 27106

Brinkley-Lane Scholars is the most prestigious undergraduate award program offered at East Carolina University. Housed in the Honors College, the four-year merit scholarship recognizes outstanding academic performance, commitment to community engagement and strong leadership skills. Recipients receive a fully funded education, covering the cost of tuition, fees, room and board for both in-state and out of state students and high impact experiences, as well as the ability to explore the world with a $5,000 study abroad stipend.

The Cheatham-White Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship program for students attending North Carolina Central University. This program was designed to provide an outstanding educational experience for exceptional scholars with a wide range of interests. Students chosen for the Cheatham-White Scholarship typically are proficient in both the arts and sciences, demonstrate strong leadership potential, and have a commitment to public service.

The Levine Scholars Program is UNC Charlotte's premier merit scholarship. As a program grounded in civic engagement, the Levine Scholarship not only covers the full cost of attendance, it also awards scholars a grant to implement a community service project. Scholars develop into transformational leaders through funded experiences that include a non-profit internship, study abroad, a pre-professional internship, and individualized mentorship.

Park Scholarships

The Park Scholarships is NC State University's premier four-year merit scholarship program. Beyond covering the full cost of attending NC State, it affords Park Scholars access to a vibrant community of peers and alumni; horizon-expanding trips, retreats, service opportunities, and leadership training; individualized faculty mentoring; early course registration; and grants to fund professional and personal enrichment experiences such as study abroad and research projects.