

JFK HS Parent and Family Engagement Committee –WSFCS 2020-21

JFK invites all families to join the JFK Parent and Family Engagement Committee to share ideas and ways to involve others to build partnerships with school, families, and the community. The team will meet four times during the school year, but parents and family members can also submit their ideas or suggestions at any school activities and meetings, as well as through our family surveys or by contacting the school. If you would like to learn more about the Parent and Family Engagement Committee please contact Maribel de Rojas at (336)-703-4144 or complete the interest form below and leave it in the front office or the Student Services Department.
