

2016 Bond Projects by School

New Classroom Technology

Every classroom in every school would receive upgraded technology.

- Your school's classrooms would be equipped with the latest technology or refreshed to modernize the students' experience.
 - Interactive display device, tablet, document camera and sound enhancement
- Your media center would receive a 3D printer and moveable furniture.

Capacity Expansion

- The district would spend $3 million to add six prekindergarten classrooms at a location to be determined and expand service to 108 children.
- The district would spend $1.5 million to buy land for a future elementary school in eastern Forsyth County.
- The district would spend $27 million to build a new middle school on Robinhood Road.
- The district would spend $27 million to build a new middle school near Smith Farm Elementary.

Safety

- Cameras would be upgraded to bring all schools up to the district standard
- Security entrances would be installed in all middle schools

Ashley Academy would receive $900,000 to pay for design plans for a future Ashley.

Bolton Elementary would receive $150,000 to renovate its restrooms.

Brunson Elementary would receive $25.2 million to build a replacement school with additional capacity, including prekindergarten classrooms.

Carver High would receive $950,000 to replace its HVAC control system and install an ERV ventilation unit in the gym.

Cash Elementary would receive $800,000 to replace its roofs.

Clemmons Elementary would receive $150,000 to replace its electric boiler and pumps.

Clemmons Middle would receive $500,000 to replace its ERV ventilation unit.

The Downtown School would receive $240,000 to replace the roof on its 1992 classroom building.

Easton Elementary would receive $9 million to add 12 classrooms, 2 pre-K classrooms and a new cafeteria, as well as $110,000 to replace the roof on the kindergarten building.

East Forsyth High would receive $20.1 million for extensive renovations, plus another $725,000 to update heat and air-conditioning units in the 1000 building and gym.

Forest Park Elementary would receive $2.2 million to replace its roof, boiler, heat pumps, HVAC controls, generator and install ERV ventilation units.

Glenn High would receive $3 million to repair its stadium.

Griffith Elementary would receive $6.9 million to add 12 classrooms, 2 pre-K classrooms and expand its cafeteria, as well as $870,000 to replace the roofs on two buildings.

Hall-Woodward Elementary would receive $210,000 to renovate restrooms.

Jefferson Elementary would receive $160,000 to replace its generator.

Jefferson Middle would receive $1.6 million to replace its HVAC control system, replace boilers, pumps, and a hot water heater and tank, and upgrade the lighting and renovate the restrooms in the 1968 building.

John F. Kennedy High would receive $18.3 million for extensive renovations to its career-tech classrooms.

Kernersville Elementary would receive $2.1 million to update electrical and mechanical systems, replace its generator, renovate its kitchen, replace boilers and upgrade ceilings and lighting.

Kimberley Park Elementary would receive $250,000 to upgrade the lighting in the main building and auditorium.

Konnoak Elementary would receive $19 million to build a partial replacement school.

Lewisville Elementary would receive $4.1 million to replace the roof on the front building, gym and auditorium and replace windows, doors, floors, ceilings, lights, HVAC systems and controls.

Lowrance Middle and Paisley IB Magnet would receive $47 million to build two replacement schools under one roof that would share space on Paisley's campus.

Meadowlark Middle would receive $40,000 to upgrade the lighting in the gym plus additional money to improve traffic flow in and out of campus.

Meadowlark Elementary would receive money to improve traffic flow in and out of campus

Mineral Springs Elementary would receive $200,000 to replace its gym air conditioning unit.

Mount Tabor High would receive $3 million to repair its stadium and $700,000 to renovate its kitchen.

North Forsyth High would receive $17 million to renovate its 1963 building (less the gym) and $545,000 to upgrade exterior lighting and install an ERV ventilation unit in the gym.

North Hills Elementary would receive $90,000 to replace its emergency communications system.

Old Richmond Elementary would receive $125,000 to replace the electrical service in its kitchen and upgrade lighting.

Parkland High would receive $1.9 million to renovate restrooms and replace electrical service in the 1965 building, install an ERV ventilation unit in the gym, replace a chiller and cooling tower, and renovate the kitchen, plus additional money for traffic improvements.

Petree Elementary would receive $160,000 to replace its generator.

Philo-Hill Magnet would receive $17.1 million for extensive renovations.

Piney Grove Elementary would receive $1.8 million to replace a heat pump, generator, water heaters, emergency communications system and roof.

Reynolds High would receive $160,000 to replace its generator, plus additional money to improve pedestrian safety around its campus.

Sedge Garden Elementary would receive $800,000 to replace the roof on its 1978 building.

Southeast Middle would receive $40,000 to upgrade the lighting in gym, plus additional money to improve traffic flow in and out of the school.

South Fork Elementary would receive $200,000 to upgrade the lighting in the main building.

Union Cross Elementary would receive $1.1 million to replace its water heater and roof.

Vienna Elementary would receive $200,000 to replace the gym roof.

Walkertown Elementary would receive $3.2 million to replace the generator, roofs, boiler, heat pumps, ERV ventilation unit and HVAC control system and improve student pick-up and drop-off.

Ward Elementary would receive $6.9 million to add 12 classrooms, 2 pre-K classrooms and expand its cafeteria.

West Forsyth High would receive $1.5 million to install an ERV ventilation unit in the gym, replace the air conditioning and heat in the 900 building and renovate the kitchen.

Wiley Magnet Middle would receive $9.3 million to replace its gym and add six STEAM classrooms and $510,000 to replace its HVAC control system and generator, plus additional money to improve pedestrian safety around its campus.

Winston-Salem Preparatory Academy would receive $1.1 million to renovate its kitchen and upgrade a storage tank.