

A SUPER 3 SONG by ENID DAVIS
Sung by the teacher and students
Tune: London Bridge is Falling Down
Based on the Big6 methodology by Michael Eisenberg and Robert Berkowitz

TEACHER:

Here's a project you can PLAN, you can PLAN, you can PLAN.
We will make a paper fan, my dear students.

STUDENTS:

We'll need paper, crayons too, crayons too, crayons too.
Red and yellow, green and blue, my dear teacher.

TEACHER:

Now's the time to DO the task, DO the task, DO the task.
Fans for every lad and lass, my dear students.

STUDENTS:

Fold the paper, draw a scene, draw a scene, draw a scene.
Sky so blue and grass so green, my dear teacher.

TEACHER:

When it's finished, please REVIEW, please REVIEW, please REVIEW.
Can it make a breeze for you, my dear students?

STUDENTS:

Folded, colored, breezy, whee! Breezy, whee! Breezy whee!
Now I know the SUPER3, my dear teacher.
