The Indian caste system can be described as a social ladder with four different rungs. Use the information you have learned in class and the word bank below to place the cutouts in their correct places.

5. The Indian system of strict social classes is called? The ________________ system.
6. In the Indian caste system, is there social mobility up and down the ladder? Yes No
7. List the four grouping in order from most respected to least respected?
   a) ________________  b) ________________  c) ________________  d) ________________
8. You are born into a particular caste? True False
9. What is the only way to move from one caste to the next?  ________________
Indian Caste System Cut-Outs