

The Circle Time Collection

Alphabet Cards

- These cards can be printed and laminated and then be used as a visual aid during your circle time.
- They can also be used as giant tracer mats to help your children get the feel for writing letters.
- If you're feeling really creative you can have your kids help come up with words that start with the letters and draw pictures of them on the corresponding letter page and THEN laminate them to make a class letter booklet.

Be on the lookout for our other new additions to the circle time collection:

- Color Cards
- Number Cards
- Shape Cards

and for the grand finale...

- The Circle Time Collection BUNDLE all for one low discounted price!
